

KENTUCKY STATE UNIVERSITY

NETWORK ASSOCIATE CERTIFICATE

The Network Associate Certificate is for students wishing to work in the field of information technology as a network associate. In order to obtain the Network Associate Certificate a student must complete 12-hour block of courses including;

Code	Title	Hours
CIT 111	Network Fundamentals	3
CIT 112	Router Theory and Config	3
CIT 211	LAN Switching and Wireless	3
CIT 212	Intro to WAN Technology	3
Total Hours		12

All courses must be passed with a "C" or better. The concepts and skills acquired in this program will ensure that a student is competent to sit for the internationally Cisco CCNA certification examination.