

KENTUCKY STATE UNIVERSITY

CERTIFICATE IN CULTURAL DIVERSITY STUDIES

Cultural Diversity Studies reflects the ability to cooperate and communicate thoughtfully, respectfully and effectively across various cultural contexts. A certificate in Cultural Competency will demonstrate the student's ability to interact positively within a diverse community and global society. Completion of the certificate requires successful completion of 15 credit hours of coursework comprised of EDU 204 (Cultural Responsiveness); ENG 204 (Introduction to Cultural Studies); COM 302 Interracial/Intercultural Communication; SOC 304 (Race and Ethnic Relations); and BSS 415 (Social Justice, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion from the Behavioral & Social Sciences Perspectives).

Code	Title	Hours
EDU 204	Cultural Responsiveness	3
ENG 220	Intro to Cultural Studies	3
SOC 304	Race and Ethnic Relations	3
COM 302	Interracial/Intercultural Comm	3

Students must also complete SOC 203 (Principles of Sociology) as part of the General Education Core requirements. All courses must be completed with a grade of C or higher. The Sociology department is the advising unit for this certificate.