MINOR IN INTERDISCIPLINARY INTELLIGENCE STUDIES

MINOR IN INTERDISCIPLINARY INTELLIGENCE STUDIES CURRICULUM AND DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Graduates who have knowledge, training, and experience in intelligence- and security-related areas are more competitive for employment at local, regional, and national intelligence and security agencies. Students who enroll in this minor program must complete six courses (18 credit hours) from among BSS 465, Counterintelligence and Counterterrorism; BSS 466, Cyber Security and Cyber Politics; BSS 467, Intelligence and National Security; BSS 468, Terrorism and Insurgency; BSS 469, Radicalization; BSS 470, Behavioral Profiling, or other 300-400 level courses relevant to the intelligence and security community.

Code	Title	Hours
BSS 465	Counterint. & Counterterr.	3
BSS 466	Cyber-Sec. and Cyber Pol.	3
BSS 467	Intelligence & Nat. Security	3
BSS 468	Terrorism and Insurgency	3
BSS 469	Radicalization	3
BSS 470	Behavioral Profiling	3