

KENTUCKY STATE UNIVERSITY

INTEGRATIVE STUDIES (IGS) INACTIVE

IGS 200: Foundations of Culture

An exploration and comparison of ideas and values reflected works from selected cultures of the ancient world.

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

IGS 201: Global Cultural Traditions

An interdisciplinary exploration and comparison of the ideas and values reflected in the spiritual/belief systems of the pre-modern world as evidenced in indigenous traditions as well as the formation of the Abrahamic, Dharmic, and Syncretist religions.

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

IGS 300: The Modern & Post-Modern World

An exploration and comparison of ideas and values reflected in the modern and post-modern world from selected cultures. Pre-reg: ENG 101 and IGS 201 or IGS 202 or consent of director.

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

IGS 304: African-Amer Experience

A study of the evolution of the African /American experience from the period of slavery to the present, especially as reflected in the writings of African/American intellectuals.

Prerequisite: ENG 101 and IGS 200 or consent of director

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

IGS 305: The Latino Experience

A study of both contributions which Latinos have made to U.S. society and ways that others have historically responded to them. Challenges confronting Latino/Hispanic immigrants in 21st century Kentucky are explored.

Prerequisite: ENG 101 and IGS 200 or consent of instructor or IGS Coordinator

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3