

KENTUCKY STATE UNIVERSITY

RECREATION (REC) INACTIVE

REC 101: Intro to Recreation

Special attention is given to the history of recreation, principles of organization, finance, administration, and supervision.

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

REC 201: Recreational Games and Sports

Special attention is given to the history of recreation, principles of organization, finance, administration, and supervision.

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

REC 322: Inclusion and Special Rec

The theory and practice of teaching recreational games and sports needed in developing sound recreational programs

Prerequisite: REC 101 or approval of chairperson

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

REC 343: Org Adm Playgrounds/Rec

Focus on city problems as related to play and recreation, planning, authority and responsibility, programs, leagues, tournaments, equipment, supplies, and public relations

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

REC 364: Camping & Camp Counseling

Includes theories and philosophies of camping and camp counseling. Emphasis on organizing and administering practical experiences in camping

Prerequisite: REC 101 or approval of chairperson

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

REC 390: Rec Clinical Exper

Course provides clinical experience in recreation dealing specifically with special populations.

Prerequisite: PHE 355, REC 101, REC 201, REC 322, and senior classification

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

REC 400: Field Experience

Students engage in supervised leadership experiences in recreation agencies.

Prerequisite: PHE 355, REC 101, REC 201, REC 322, and junior classification

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

REC 402: Recreation Field/Clinical Exp

The clinical and field experiences will require 40 hours covering 12 weeks.

Prerequisite: REC 101, REC 201, REC 322 and junior or senior classification

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3