SCHOOL OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND POLITICAL SCIENCE

- B.A. in Criminal Justice
- B.A. in Political Science

Criminal Justice

The baccalaureate degree program in Criminal Justice is designed to prepare students for careers in law enforcement, community and institutional corrections, court services, and other criminal justice-related areas. Additionally, it provides students with the fundamentals necessary for admission to law school or for advanced study in graduate school.

Political Science

Political Science, as a discipline, involves the systematic study of politics and the political system. The Political Science program at Kentucky State University has a highly developed academic curriculum that prepares students for graduate study in political science or related areas, such as law or public administration. Political Science requires the application of knowledge and critical thinking to assess, prevent, and resolve political and social problems. Additionally, the curriculum addresses preparation of students for entry-level career positions in public and private sectors of employment.
